

HAPPY NOVEMBER!

Greeting Friends and Neighbors!

I say I love Fall, and part of me does. I love the turning leaves, I love pumpkin everything, I love that it's soup makin' time, however, while I was standing outside this morning waiting on the dogs to do their thing, I was dreaming of warmer temps. I had a customer come in this morning who was born and raised in Florida, she was back home last week. She mentioned that a week ago she was surfing and hanging out in a bikini. So jealous!

Well, back in Kansas...our November Soup are as follows:

Monday– Grandma Bernie's Potato Soup    Tuesday– Chicken & Wild Rice    Wednesday– Chicken Tortilla

Thursday– Cheeseburger    Friday– 3 Bean Chili with Mad Eliza's Cinnamon Rolls

We have a busy weekend coming up! November 9th we have Elvin & Justin from Slow Ya Roll Singing. They will be performing from 10-noon. If you have been here then you know to get here early, order some breakfast and reserve you seat. If you have not been here, follow the same instructions. Also happening this weekend, Author Esther Luttrell will be signing her book The Haunting of Leigh Maxwell.

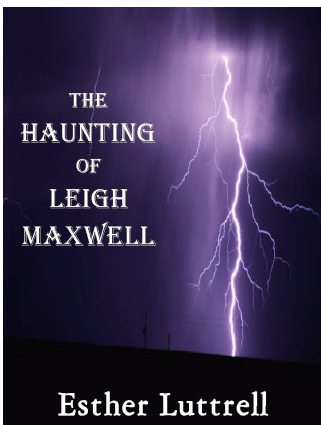

My daughter Macy is having a fundraiser for UNICEF at the shop, for every monster cookie that is purchased, all the proceeds will go towards her fundraiser. She is helping me bake them, so getting her involved in the kitchen too!

We have had a very busy last couple of months at the shop. You will see some new faces, Taylor & Shelby have joined our crew. They are our opening baristas, so there will always be an opening barista and someone in the kitchen. This will help get you to work faster when you are stopping in for morning coffee and breakfast. You are more than welcome to call in your order, 228-2001. Give us a call when you pull out of the driveway and we'll get your order packed up and ready to go!

Well, I guess that's about it!

Thank you for your continued support! This little pirate ship would not be afloat if it was not for you!

Juli
