Greeting Friends and Neighbors!

December!?! Whoa, where did the year go? It's been a pretty crazy one for us! Personally, we moved to Topeka from Rossville, Macy started a new school, we got a new dog (Cupcake) and we just got back from vacation in Branson. Oh yea, then we had this little part time gig called Juli's Coffee & Bistro!

This last year has been amazing, the growth at the coffee shop has been great. Honestly, it all because of you! You coming in, liking what you had and telling a friend! It's the best form of advertising that we have, you telling a friend, co-worker or family member. So, thank you!

We have a busy weekend coming up! This Friday, December 6th is Bierock Day, homemade Beirocks starting at 11am. Saturday is live music day, I would like to tell you who...but I don't have anyone! I overlooked booking, one could say 'overblooked' and I am still looking for someone to play. So, I will keep you posted! :) We do have a special open house for a gal, Kimberly Kingsbury, here in town. Her business is called Diecut Darlings, she sells doll clothes, shoes, accessories and jewelry for American Girl sized dolls. I met her at the Farmers Market this last summer. Macy fell in love with her stuff, imagine that! I had told Kimberly that if she wanted to do a showcase at my shop in December it was available. Well, she took me up on it! She will be there from 10am-1 on Saturday. It's a cash and carry show, so she will have outfits for you to take with you. Some of you may wonder why I do things like this, book signings, ect... It's simple, I like pairing with other local businesses. I think we should do anything we can to help support each other.

A new month means new soups, our December Soup are as follows:

Monday– Loaded Baked Potato Soup      Tuesday– White Bean Chicken Chili      Wednesday– Ham & Beans w/ Cornbread
Thursday– Chicken Enchilada Soup      Friday– 3 Bean Chili with Mad Eliza's Cinnamon Rolls

Only one new face to tell you about, Kezia (key-zee-a). You will see her helping out around lunch time. Also, Taylor will be leaving us at the end of this month to head off to sunny California, who could blame her?! Also, tell Crystal Happy Birthday, she turned 39 December 1st!

Thanks for coming back!

Juli

That's not enough incentive to have lunch with a co-worker or family member?

How about this...Get them signed up for our Birthday Club
